

B1. II

Unit 6

Exercise 1

Complete the sentences 1-9 with the words from the table below.

//a crush on // // spouse // // broke up // // dumped// // fiancé // // cheated on //

// were widowed // // divorce // // split up// // on a date // // fiancée //

1. The girl who is dressed in white is my _____.
2. Kate always shows off the big diamond ring she got from her _____.
3. My job offers medical and dental benefits for myself, my _____ and my children.
4. He _____ his girlfriend because she _____ on him with someone else.
5. Thousands of women _____ by the war.
6. I didn't want to _____ with Mary. She's the one who _____ with me.
7. The children were greatly affected by their parents' _____.
8. John has had a _____ on Mary ever since they were in high school.
9. He asked his friend _____ and she accepted.

Exercise 2

Fill in the blanks with the correct idiom from the list.

- to be head over heels (in love)
- to hit it off
- to fall in/out of love
- to fall for somebody (hard)
- to have chemistry

- to be on the rocks
 - to only have eyes for someone
1. When Emma met Carlos at the party, they really _____, talking and laughing like old friends within minutes.
 2. After dating for two months, Julia realized she was _____ with Mark and couldn't stop thinking about him.
 3. Sarah and Tom's relationship is _____ lately; they argue all the time and don't seem happy.
 4. Even though there are many people around at the event, Michael _____ —he keeps looking at Anna and ignoring everyone else.
 5. At first, they didn't like each other, but over time they began to _____ and now they're inseparable.
 6. John and Lisa clearly _____ because their conversations flow effortlessly and they understand each other deeply.
 7. After years together, some couples might _____ and feel less connected, which is normal in long-term relationships.

Exercise 3

Read the text and write 'so' or 'such' according to the text.

A Weekend to Remember

Last Saturday was 1. _____ a beautiful day that we decided to go to the countryside. The weather was 2. _____ warm that nobody even needed a jacket. We found a spot by the river that was 3. _____ peaceful. It was 4. _____ a perfect place for a picnic that we stayed there for hours.

My brother brought his new guitar. He is 5. _____ a talented musician that everyone stopped talking to listen to him. He played 6. _____ beautifully that time flew by. However, we enjoyed ourselves 7. _____ much that we completely forgot about the time. By the afternoon, the sky became 8. _____ dark that we knew a storm was coming.

Suddenly, it started raining with 9. _____ heavy drops that we had to run to the car. The wind was 10. _____ strong that it almost blew our picnic blanket away. It was 11. _____ a chaotic moment! We got into the car 12. _____ quickly that we left our water bottles behind.

The drive home was 13. _____ dangerous because of the flooded roads. My father drove with 14. _____ great care that we arrived home safely. Despite the rain, it was an unforgettable adventure.